

Afghanistan Business Referrals

We introduce the most skilled and prominent lawyers, business advisors, accountants, translators and professionals in all legal and advisory area and from all parts of Afghanistan. ABR is the next generation for finding a specialist lawyer and professional for your business requirements in Afghanistan.

We believe that one firm or individual can't profess to offer the best advice or the most knowledge across all sectors or fields of advice. Thus, we aim to focus on practice area expertise, by bringing the best of each sector and location to the client. We are the only well-known network of this type in the country.

Beside the benefits to the clients; members receive unrivalled value and exposure by being able to deliver an up-to-date profile on their business services, news and legal topics. Our large group of advisers, each with specific expertise and knowledge, allow us to offer a network platform that provides the very best solution for the end user's requirements. In addition, members has the opportunity to update their profile as required, and can submit relevant topics and news about their firm and services to our global audience.

Member Benefits

- Members build international connections
- Receive local and international businesses
- Members develop their firm brand globally
- Membership secured by expertise area
- Distribute and share of news and topics to local and international audience
- Each member has its own client manager, who works with the practice to assist its development and marketing needs.
- Newsfeed on their profile, so they can upload and publish articles, stories, awards and other information they wish to share.
- ABR marketing literature, to include: member profile, logo, contact information, website link and promotional editorial.
- Search Engine Optimization (SEO). We constantly work on the Search Engine Optimization of our platforms, meaning our network can be found when potential clients are seeking lawyers and professional advisors in Afghanistan through key word searching on any search engine platforms.
- Member's own profile page, highlighting skills of the individual and of the firm. This is personalized to each client's request.

www.abr.af

info@abr.af